Recap of Mastermind...

1 Make a Simple Offer Today

Stop waiting. Pick one thing you can help people with right now.

Examples:

- A power hour coaching session
- A mini reading or intuitive consult
- A done-for-you service or quick audit

How to do it:

- Write a short post: "I have 3 spots this week to help you [specific result]."
 - Include: what they get, how much, how to pay.
 - Share it on Substack, email your list, post it in a group, message warm leads.
 - Add a payment link — make it easy!

2 Share or Create an Affiliate Offer

You don't have to reinvent the wheel.

Think: What do I already love, use, or teach about?

How to do it:

- Find an affiliate program for a tool, course, product, or platform you trust.

- Sign up, grab your link, and share your real story: why it helps you, why you recommend it.
 - Or flip it: invite others to become your affiliates for something you sell.
 - Mention it in your posts and emails — remind people to share it too.

✅ 3 Host a Tiny Paid Workshop or Series

Keep it small and doable. People crave simple, actionable learning.

📌 How to do it:

- Pick one clear topic your audience wants.
 - Pick a date this week or next — keep it short (30–60 mins).
 - Price it: $22–$97 is great for fast yes’s.
 - Make a simple invite post: “Here’s what we’re covering, when, and how to join.”
 - Deliver live, then sell the replay if you like!

✨ Your Reminder

Clarity > Perfection.

Action > Overthinking.

Momentum starts with one offer.

You don’t need a huge list — you need the courage to invite people to work with you in a way that feels aligned today.
